

Cruising

Promenade along the Danube on the Pest Side (Duna-Korzó) Located on the Pest side of the city between the Március 15 tér at the Elizabeth bridge , to the square of Vigadó Mariott hotel .It is definitely a cruising place with a lot of male prostitutes Sometimes you can meet with boys even during the day time but the best to time going there from the late afternoon till midnight. Népliget ("Folk's" park) One of the biggest cruising area . It starts behind the Planetarium around the area of the old ruins. There is an old abandoned mansion where Gay people go to everything. Also car cruising at the road beside the park. Going to visit this place without car is dangerous .The park at the Buda-side pier of Margaret bridge The little park stretches from the bridge to the Komjadi sport pool . Popular but it is also dangerous only at your own risk often police control, Gay people have been attacked there. Why not visit Budapest's famous Ecseri market with us?
